FROM THE DESK OF THE TEACHER-IN-CHARGE

At the outset of presenting the annual report 2022-23 of our college, I extend my heartiest greetings to the honourable Chairman Mr Rajnikant Dani, Vice-Chairman Mr Miraj D. Shah and all the respected members of the Governing Body, Academic and Research Advisor, the Director General, Deans, Vice-Principles, Coordinators, teaching staff and support staff of the college and my beloved students. A short history of the voyage of the College has to be uttered before pronouncing the academic and administrative development of the college for the year 2022-23.

The Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) was founded in 1966 with the motto "Education for Excellence". It is run by the Bhawanipur Gujarati Education Society. It is a minority-run college recognised under section 2(f) & 12(B) of the UGC act, 1956, accredited by NAAC and affiliated to the university of Calcutta. BESC was created under Article 30(1) of the Indian Constitution, which guarantees linguistic minorities, such as the Gujarati-speaking community in Kolkata, the right to establish and administer educational institutions. The college started its journey in 1966 with less than a hundred students, but in the decades since, BESC has sought to extend its motto to a truly diverse body of students, accommodating eligible pupils irrespective of their linguistic, religious, or financial backgrounds. Now, every year about 4000 students join the BESC family. At BESC, there is a wide range of academic pursuits and vocations directed to ignite the uninterrupted spirit of learning. There are 16 Degree Programs, of which 14 are undergraduates and 2 postgraduates. The programs are spread over three shifts, focusing on the academic streams such as Arts, Commerce, Science and Management. The college encourages the students to explore a carrier of passion while they work toward their degree.

Our college has constantly nurtured a vision to inculcate and promote the quality of academics and administration and implementation of the same through ISO certification. First ISO 9001: 2015 certification was done in January 2020. Since then, all the sections and departments are observed periodically to sustain the quality of their academic and administrative performances.

BESC is proud to have a team of faculty with highly experienced professional and personal skills of high order. Our family, both permanent and visiting, are committed to their students for their learning and mentoring process. They are very supportive in creating a conducive learning environment sharing their knowledge and skills to meet the requirements of a globally competitive environment and to instil social and ethical values among them. Our faculty is instrumental in updating themselves consistently for the UG and PG CBCS curricula and, NEP curricula through their innovative practices of pedagogy. I convey my heartiest congratulations to the faculty of the B. Com Morning Section for their endeavour to create the B. Com Academic E-Library to store reference material for their students.

The faculty from all the departments are constantly motivated to pursue higher studies to obtain their M. Phil and Ph. D degree. The growth of BESC is continuously nourished by their constant research activity in campus or in collaboration with other institutions of high repute. Their regular publications of research papers, books, book chapters, e-Journals, review articles, periodicals, paper presentations in National/ International symposia, conferences, webinars, participation in the seminars, workshops, FDPs always testify to their high competency in nurturing and nourishing the minds of the students.

The BESC faculty of Science Section and the Arts Section also supplemented the efforts in publishing books with ISBN No: Coherence; Mosaics of a Locale; Vox Scholaris - Reminiscing History, E-Magazine; Thought Spell, Orateur with some meritorious students to explore their creative potential and innovative spirit in research beyond their curriculum. The department of English has published the E-Journal "Interlocutor" and the Science Section created a webpage for their journal "Coherence" in the BESC website, significantly putting a testimonial of the continuous research activity at BESC.

The 2nd cycle of NAAC accreditation process is under progress with the assistance of the IQAC committee of the college. The Academic Audit of each department is conducted yearly by the distinguished and eminent educationists from reputed colleges and universities as assessors on a regular basis to scrutinise the quality of academic activities in the college.

The green audit has been completed in due course.

The IQAC of BESC has taken the initiative to revise the Program Outcome (PO), Program Specific Outcome (PSO) and Course Outcome (CO) of all the UG and PG courses offered following the curriculum of the University. Distinguished and eminent personalities from reputed colleges, universities and other institutes acted as resource persons and delivered a series of lectures, organised by the different departments of the college through seminars, workshops, FDP, sensitisation programs on diverse disciplines for the students, faculty and staff members.

All the departments of the Science Section organised the "Peer Student Seminar" where the peer students presented papers based on their curriculum. Students of the department of History, Political Science and English presented papers on various topics on contemporary issues.

Our college seeks to boost up the online Teaching-Learning Platform SWAYAM-NPTEL as a learning resource for the students of their academic and beyond academic pursuits.

The college adopts various learning and evaluation methods for the students through classroom teaching, regular assessments, CIA, student seminars and remedial classes for the slow learners.

The BESC continue with the Graduation Felicitation Ceremony and felicitated a large number of sixth semester students in view of their excellence in the university examination.

On the auspicious day of Saraswati Puja, 2023, our college felicitated faculty members who have obtained their Ph. D. Degree recently. Faculty members are also awarded for publishing their research papers, books, book chapters in the various journals in the recent past.

The BESC management is especially thankful to the college support staff as they are the lifeline of the college and play a pivotal role in its growth. The management took the initiative to felicitate the support staff including the security and housekeeping staff, the academic support and the Accounts, Sports, Infrastructure, and the System Control Officials in the pre-Holi event 'Fagun 2023'.

Taking into consideration the new subjects in all disciplines to be started and the increased number of students being admitted each year, the college proposes to extend the academic block in near future. There exists a generator-based power backup in the college to maintain uninterrupted power supply. Water coolers cum purifiers have been installed in each floor of the building to ensure safe drinking water; fire extinguishers have been provided in all the laboratories, library, offices, staff rooms, corridors, sports arena and in all other places as a safeguard against fire hazards. CCTV cameras have been installed everywhere in the college to strengthen the security system. One infirmary is always active for the service of ailing staff and students. There are a total of 68 lecture rooms all of which have multi-media projection facilities, one smart classroom, 32 laboratories (includes 6 new laboratories and 1 research laboratory, four computer laboratories). Facilities for differently abled staff and students in accordance with the Government guidelines, one air-conditioned Auditorium, two centrally air-conditioned theatre halls, conference and seminar halls of the college all have state of the art multimedia facilities. The college has 302 desktops, 32 laptops (each department has laptops for their need), and 01 server room. The computer laboratories are equipped with the latest software meeting the needs of the students for their curricula. The entire college campus is a Wi-Fi enabled zone. The college also has 6 lifts (a new one being added last year) to ensure the barrier free movement for all staffs and students.

The college library termed Knowledge Resource Centre is well equipped with books, periodicals, newspapers, reference volumes and national and international journals covering all subjects of study offered at the college. The digitally enabled Knowledge Resource Centre extended facilities like Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC)

(through which Registered users may check their library accounts), e-resources (Capitaline DataBase; Jstor; Pearson E-Library 2.0; Infilibnet, Nlist etc.) everything for students, staff and faculty need, conveniently available on campus in an air-conditioned, digitally connected space. Individual departments also have a separate library for the instantaneous usage of books. This year our library enlisted Pearson E-library 2.0 where 8355 books/ journals of all disciplines are added. Furthermore, our library started one new section as Collegial Repository where each programme repository contains programme syllabi, rare books and journals, question papers, special lectures, in-house journals and culture and heritage related documents of the college and our endeavour is to provide the library membership to all the support staff of the college with the encouragement of the Management. Our very proactive library staff and the faculty associated with the library committee are always there to upgrade the infrastructural facility of the library. They offer paid internships to students through 'Earn while you learn scheme' that gives them hands-on experience in library functionality and of working in a professional environment. Another excellence of our library services is that the best library user award was started for the students and staff in 2019 based on the footfall count in the library and resource usage and is still being continued.

Being an undergraduate college affiliated to the University of Calcutta, the college administration explored all possibilities for the placement of the passing out students. BESC has achieved an extremely high placement record over the years from many top national and international companies. Every year, the Placement Cell draws recruiters from the like of TCS, EY, PWC, Deloitte, Oracle, Axis Bank, KPMG and Indigo, to name a few. BESC students have been placed in Amazon, Ernst & Young, ITC Hotels, Cognizant, Byjus, Eureka Forbes, ICICI Prudential Life Insurance, Hoichoi, Indigo, Paisa Bazaar.com, Phone Pe and TCS. In addition to handling placements, the Dean of Students' Affairs conducts a series of seminars, workshops and a good number of professional skill development courses on entrepreneurship and leadership for the outgoing students of multi-disciplinary sections of the College. Our counsellors are always at hand to talk with students about emerging trends in global and local hiring practices in the field of their choice. I take the opportunity to thank our students and the splendid placement cell of the college that in spite of post Covid-19 crisis, the cell organized placement drives where students found placement for job/internships. Many companies have already shown their interest in visiting the placement cell of our college.

Now, let me state some of the notable achievements of the college in the department of Games and Sports during 2022-23.

This is a moment of pride and introspection as well to share that all of us work together to complete the work left and that is how it should be done. Keeping aside the negativity, anti-college activism and unethical approaches at the workplace we have to work altogether to elevate our college to the highest level of academic and administrative excellence.

Before I close, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all the stakeholders, conveying my appeal for your sustained support, guidance, and blessings for the long journey of our college ahead to help us build up a new notion of our society.

The leadership ensures that quality of actions and the policies are framed and implemented following the proposed framework of the acts, statutes and ordinances of the University of Calcutta in the most of the aspects of teaching-learning, extracurricular and co-curricular activities; admission of students; recommendations on introduction of new courses, new teaching posts in the departments; recruitment of teachers/Staff; expansion of existing departments; formulation of policies for capacity building of faculty and opportunities for participation in seminars, conferences etc. The Management provides a congenial environment to its stakeholders by interacting with them formally and informally and by taking their feedback on various aspects. They are encouraged to provide their innovative ideas/suggestions for promoting hi-fi knowledge and culture of excellence. The Management of the college also provides extensive opportunities for research even at the undergraduate level to promote the innovation and excellence. The college encourages interdisciplinary / multidisciplinary research with a sophisticated infrastructure and instrumentation/accessories and research emoluments and research/project fellowship / assistance-ship for smooth conducting the research by the faculty with the undergraduate/postgraduate students and research fellows. This provides the platform for the students to connect the world of textbook knowledge to experiential learning.

The college has moved to e-governance and developed an e-communication network with the students, faculty and staff. The Administrative and Accounts section, The Teacher-in-Charge, The Dean, Vice Principal(s), Coordinators and other offices are well equipped with the latest softwares. All laboratories, library office, security,

All sections of the college have easy to remember distinctive email ids defined by their functions. All the classrooms are well equipped with multimedia projection facilities.

Human resource section at BESC is very equitable and inclusive and the faculty, students and administrative staff of the college are provided ample facilities for their growth. The college Management ensures that the benefits and welfare facilities will be granted to the staff as per their norms.

The college has the perspective plans for its all-round development. These plans are designed and executed for the academic enrichment as well as non-academic skill development for the teachers, students and non-teaching staff keeping in mind the values embedded in our vision. Career Guidance for the competitive examinations and career connect courses for the students are also the legacy to inculcate the diversification of the knowledge. College takes a pivotal role to uphold the mental and physical wellness through psychological counselling session by a reputed consultant and set up a medical wing / infirmary inside the college campus. Alumni and donors are very proactive to donate for the upliftment of the institution in infrastructure, environment and pedagogy. Regular internal as well as external financial audit is conducted to ensure economic transparency. Academic and administrative audit systems have also been successfully carried out. The immersive lecture delivered by Professor Kashinath Dey consisted of little details of Vedic Mathematics and some of the sixteen sutras of the Vedas. Every sum presented to the undergraduate students was dealt with simple diction and ample clarity by him. The importance of Vedas, Upvedas, and Vedangas in classical computing, and how their texts contained mathematical concepts that formed the core of Indian, and later, world mathematics and sciences, was talked about at length by Prof. Dey. He displayed some methods of performing basic subtraction and multiplication using techniques of computing that existed hundreds of years before conventional methods were thought of. Concepts of Ekanyunea Purvena and the importance of Sthapathyaveda, which, plainly put, is modern-day engineering, were expounded upon by him. The reason behind '9' being called a 'magic number' was explained thoroughly by the distinguished teacher. He went on to talk about digital roots and their significance in classical computing, and how they can be used in today's world to further simplify mathematics and science. Squaring numbers, or multiplying extremely large numbers, can be made out in a matter of minutes, if not seconds, using basic Vedic mathematics. At the end of the lecture, Dr. Ivy Dasgupta delivered her vote of thanks and concluded the event.

- Outcome of the event: The students learnt about various methods of solving complicated problems in mathematics. The Professor emphasized on rigorous practice to get acquainted with those procedures, which might seem complicated to a first-timer, but invariably gets easier with repeated application. He accepted questions from the audience pertaining to his lecture, after his presentation ended. Questions were asked by both students and teachers which were answered very promptly by him. It can be seen that the event created huge interest among the participants in learning such computing techniques.

Subsequently, he introduced the audience to several nuances of scholarly communications, namely its definitions, channels and cycles. An integral portion of his lecture was devoted to various modes of estimating the impact of scholarly publications in online academic communities; some fundamental varieties of impact include article impact, journal impact, author impact, book impact and book chapter impact. Dr. Ghosh spoke of various softwares capable of generating journal citation reports which provide scholars with transparent, publisher-neutral data and statistics. The presentation focused on some appropriate modes of estimating the impact of a particular journal, some of which would include the SCImago Journal Rank, Impact per Publication (IPP) and the Immediacy Index. The lecture concluded with a reflection on possible strategies to maximize the impact of scholarly output in online scholarly communities. Dr. Ghosh's presentation was followed by a brief Question-Answer round, which was succeeded by a fifteen-minute tea-break.

At 12.45 pm, the second session of the workshop resumed with the presentation of Dr. Pritam Gurey which was titled "Similarity Detection: An Important Approach towards Quality Publication". Direct plagiarism, patchwork plagiarism, paraphrasing plagiarism and unintentional plagiarism are some of its variants. Dr. Gurey spoke at length on the different formats of citation which is an indispensable practice for tackling plagiarism. Subsequently, he demonstrated with the aid of pre-recorded screenshots how various plagiarism-detection tools such as Turnitin and Ouriginal operate—this provided a revealing insight into the handling of plagiarism-detection tools to the members of the audience. The presentation was followed by a Question-Answer round where members of the library staff, Committee members and students directed their queries to the speaker.

The Vote of Thanks was delivered by Ms. Piu Chatterjee. The entire workshop was ably conducted by Dr. Dona Ganguly. PART A.1.4: CULTURAL ACTIVITIES ORGANIZED BY SCIENCE SECTION

1. Name of the Activity: National Science Day

- Type of Activity: Celebration of CV Raman's birthday
- Date/ Duration of Activity (from-to): 28 February, 2023
- Time: From 11 am to 5 pm
- Details of Resource persons/ Judges/ Special

Guests, etc: All the faculties of Science section, Teacher-In-Charge

- No. of Participants: 169
- Objective of the event: To celebrate national Science Day on the Birth Anniversary of CV Raman.
- Brief description of the event: The National Science Day (NSD) was celebrated at The Bhawanipur Education Society (BES) College on 28th of February, 2023 to celebrate the discovery of the eponymous optical phenomenon, the Raman Effect, by the great Indian physicist, Sir Chandrasekhara Venkata Raman on this very day way back in the year 1928. The Government of India has mandated this day to be celebrated as National Science Day from 1987 after a proposal from the National Council for Science and Technology Communication was accepted to recognise the groundbreaking scientific discovery of the great Sir C.V. Raman.

The BES College in association with the Seminar/FDP/Workshop Committee of the Science Section worked tirelessly for the past few months towards celebrating this notable day. The events were carefully planned out to uphold the motto of this year's NSD theme - Global Science for Global Well-being. The theme based events included performances which not only holistically assessed the overall scientific temper of the contestants but also showcased how healthy competitiveness could actually put justice at helm based on sound logic.

The events included an essay competition which was open to some well-reputed schools and The Bhawanipur Education Society College students. This event was organised to gauge the writing skill of the participants. The student of The BGES school, Suvam Srivastava was adjudged winner of this round in the school category. Sagnik Chakraborty of the Department of Chemistry of the BES college emerged victorious in the college category.

Another theme based event to assess the communication and presentation skill of students was an oral presentation competition which was again divided into two categories. The winners in the school category were Subhasini Das and Bhakti Kothari from The BGES school. Students from Hartley's High School, Sindhuja Sanyal and Samadrita Maji deserve special mention as they took time out of their busy school curricula and participated in the event inspired by their accompanying teachers. The presentations of the school students emphasized on how mental well-being is instrumental in deciding a nation's overall well-being and showed that they are on the right track to embody wellness as part of their wealth. The college students also illustrated the importance of mental well-being. They, too, emphasized that a society can only progress if its members are mentally sound to make sound decisions. The students of the Department of Electronics of this college, Gourab Chowdhury and Rudra Pratap Naskar, put forward the argument that progressing in technology is not equivalent to progressing as human beings because it only brings materialistic pleasure devoid of holistic happiness. This justification pleased the judges and eventually, they emerged as the winners of this round in the college category.

As it is said, the best is reserved for the last, the most exhilarating event was the quiz competition among the Science Section departments which proved to be the apt finale to the day's proceedings. The rounds were really taxing and wrung out the best from the contestants. The quiz session not only taxed the mind but also soothed it with exciting questions and still more exciting answers. After grueling four rounds of interrogation, the team Mathematics stood out victorious. This session served as a platform for exploring the cognitive skills of the future residents of India based on scientific temper and information.

The judges for the events opined that celebration of NSD is an exemplary initiative to cement the fissures of disbelief and to mend the wear and tears of fabricated facts so rampant nowadays. Few of the judges, young doctors from Spain, Italy and Germany commended the initiative on NSD. Overall, they appreciated the intention behind such celebration and their words inspired the contestants.

The celebration came to an end with the valedictory session. The coordinators of the huge day-long exercise of science, with science and for science, Dr. Utsa Das, Dr. Yeasin Sikdar and Ms. Shawni Dutta were felicitated. Dr. Suman Mukerjee, Director General of The BGES and Mr. Dilip Shah, Dean of Students Affairs, praised the celebration and spoke in favour of science as the path to sustainability. Finally, the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Subhabrata Ganguly, Dean of Science, Dr. Samir Kanti Datta and Vice Principal Science, Dr. Pinki Saha Sardar commended the commitment of the entire unit of Science Section in making the event worthy of remembrance and serve as launching pad for students taking up science as their road ahead.

1. Name of the activity: Commemoration of Earth Day

- Type of Activity: Seminar
- Date: 24 April, 2023
- No. of participants: 134
- Objective of the event: Commemoration of Earth Day
- Brief description of the event: The Environmental Development Committee, The Bhawanipur Education Society College organised a series of interesting events for the students to commemorate the day. The events were "Best of Waste" (Installation Art),

Short Film Making Competition and Debate Competition. Around 134 people participated in the programme out of which there were 44 faculty members, 10 non-teaching staff and 80 students. The Installation Art started off with 14 students in five groups making the best out of waste materials. The competition focused on bringing an understanding among the students about preserving the environment by reusing and recycling waste material. Various interesting ideas were demonstrated using material like newspapers, old CDs, used ropes, ice cream sticks, bangles, nut shells, pebbles, coir etc. Each group discussed in depth the importance of raw waste materials they used in making their creative endeavours to the judges. The judges, Dr. Somsankar Ray and Mr. Tathagata Sen finally selected the winners. The winners of the event were Shreyam Dey, Aiyendree Jha, and Keshvi Lakhani. The second prize was won by Adnan Abbas Ansari, Rounak Kumar, and Shashanka Sourav. The third position was a tie – one group comprising of Kashish Warsiya, Nivedita, and Muskaan Gupta, and another group comprising of Tulika Dey and Alefiya Haji. One of the main attractions of the Earth Day 2023 celebrations was the filmmaking competition for the students of the college. About three weeks prior to the event, the students were notified about the competition along with all the rules, regulations, and protocols involved. They were given a list of environment related themes and were asked to make a short film of duration not more than five minutes, and without any dialogue. There were five submissions in total from students of different departments, from both the science and arts faculties. The task of selection and judging was given to Mr. Supratik Sur Roy, and Mr. Soumya Ganguly of the Department of Film Studies. The films were judged on a set of criteria including idea, script, technical skill, execution, etc. Finally, four films were selected for screening during the event. These films were "Waqt" by the students of the Department of Political Science, "The Day After Tomorrow" by the students of the Department of Economics, "Is This Our Future?" by the students of the Department of Physics, and finally "City Life and Climate Change" also by the students of the Department of Political Science. The screening was conducted by Mr. Arup Ratan Samajdar of the Department of Film Studies, and attended by a large number of students as well as teachers from different departments from both the Arts and the Science section, including the respected Teacher in Charge Dr. Subhabrata Ganguly and The Vice Principal, Admin Dr. Pinki Saha Sardar. All the films were appreciated and enjoyed on their own merits by the present audience with "The Day After Tomorrow" drawing a loud applause for its bold and impactful message, despite some technical glitches in projection. Finally, as the results were announced in the end, it was the students of the Physics Department Ayush Prakash, Pawan Baskey, Pratik Sinha, and Rahul Roy who won the first prize for their efforts. The second prize was awarded to the students of the Economics Department

Debopriya Samanta, Ayan Chatterjee, Goutam Biswas, Sachin Kumar Prasad, Sraboshi Dhar, and Suparna Das. The third prize was picked up by the students of the Political Science Department Adnan Abbas Ansari, Komal Sharma, Rounak Kumar and Shashanka Sourav for their film "City Life and Climate Change". The prizes were given away by our respected Teacher in Charge. Everyone involved in the process, right from the participants, the judges, and the audience seemed to genuinely cherish this segment and expressed it generously in their applause and words of encouragement. The next event was a Debate competition with the topic "Conservation and Development cannot go hand in hand. Do you agree?" 14 students divided into 7 groups enthusiastically participated. Each group had one student speaking for the motion and the other student spoke against the motion. Every participant had remarkable insights regarding technology, development, and economic progress and solutions for a sustainable environment. The judges, Mr Tathagata Sen and Mr. Aritrik Dutta Chowdhury, had a tough time selecting the winners. In the end of a very informative and exciting session Sofia Parveen was declared the winner with Gaurav Choudhury and Anubhav Sarkar coming in as the first and second runners up respectively. The debate competition was not only educational and factual but also revealed the critical thought processes of the young minds who would be the future designers of the global community.

- Outcome :Overall it was an event which was cherished by both the students as well as the teachers.

Suffice it to say, such trips are essential for a student's growth and development, bringing them closer to nature.

PART A: OUTREACH PROGRAMMES

PART A.1. OUTREACH PROGRAMMES OF ARTS SECTION

1. Category of the Activity: Outreach Programme

- Organising unit: Department of Bengali
- Date/ duration of the activity: 8 January, 2023
- Time: 06:30 am to 7:00 pm (Whole day)
- No. of Participants: 20
- No. of Beneficiaries: 20
- Objective of the activity: To enrich students with the detailed information about World Heritage Sight - 'Potochitra Village - Naya Pingla (West-Midnapur) and Birsingha Gram (Birth Place of Iswarchandra Vidyasagar)'.
- Brief description of the activity: A one day Educational trip to Pingla Patachitra Village and Birsingha was organized by the Department of Bengali, The Bhawanipur Education Society College. The trip was a learning and enriching experience for the students. The tour was being planned and coordinated by all the Teachers of Bengali Department and the college management. Around 20 students and teachers were part of this tour which commenced on 8th January 2023.

Pingla is basically a flourishing hub of more than 350 artists where they have formed a cluster named Chitrataru in 2011. The reason for the formation of the village focuses on the training of the next generation in this art form and also for the better opportunities of the local people with the special ability of their innovation. Patachitra is an old form of art in Bengal. The Patuas use natural colours which they extract from leaves, flowers, seeds of various trees and they not only paint, but they also sing to describe as they unroll the painting scroll to show it to the people. These songs are specially known as Pater Gaan. The songs and paintings are basically based on the old culture, mythological tales of India and also about the current situation of our world. They form their art works as the tool for social communication and awareness. Chitrakars have painted 'patachitra' on Covid and have composed songs to spread awareness amongst the people of the remote villages. Each and every work there are examples of fine art and the beauty of simple living.

This trip was both an extension activity and an outreach project. We spent the entire day watching and observing their amazing works. The children of the village are very talented and dedicated as they have already started practicing for the future. As a mark of appreciation and encouragement of their work and effort we gave some art materials to 20 children of the village. We have bought some of their fine art pieces to help them and to support them.

We have met Anwar Chitrakar the Padmasree Award Winner and have seen his excellent works. We have also seen the other mesmerizing works of Bahadur Chitrakar, Rajesh Chitrakar, Swarna Chitrakar, Khukumoni Chitrakar, Karuna Chitrakar. Many of the Chitrakars have been since the age of 10 and have become accomplished artists winning the district awards for their skills. Many Chitrakars have participated in the events across India and also been to Australia and Indonesia. A decade back this art form was dying with only 20 artists but now Pingla is a hub of many talented artists.

We have also been to Birsingha, the birthplace of Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar. Vidyasagar Janmotsav Committee has renovated the home of Vidyasagar and has made a library. We have learnt the historical background about the place and also about the amazing works of Vidyasagar.

- Outcome of the activity: To be aware and try to save our old culture and art form by encouraging them for all the works they have been doing till date. In this project we have gathered knowledge about the culture and the historical sides of Bengal. This project has been a tremendous learning experience of the students creating an awareness for the cultural preservation and substance of the Bengal Culture and Art.

1. Category of the Activity: Outreach Programme

- Organising unit: Department of Physics, Electronics and Statistics
- Date: 28 September, 2022
- Time: 11:00 am to 6:00 pm
- No. of Participants: 44
- No of Beneficiaries: Not Applicable
- Objective of the activity: To help the society "Prajapatir Pathshala" which works for the street children and addicted individuals to bring them in the mainstream of our society.
- Brief description of the activity: A noble initiative of an honest Police Man to bring street children and addicted individuals to the main stream of our society. The Police Man named Arnab Roy Chowdhury (well known as "Police Kaku") has been like a father for 40 street children. He is engaged in imparting education and other necessary facilities to these street children since the last eight years. During this period, some of his colleagues have also joined him in this endeavor. They have managed to lend a barren land from Indian Railways beside Barasat Railway Station and built an open air school. They named the school "Prajaptir Pathshala" as was coined by Kabiguru Rabindranath Tagore. As per the ideology of "Police kaku", the students (i.e., street children and addicted children) who are analogous to caterpillars will grow and develop themselves in their unique way and will fly into the sky (alike, to the mainstream of our society) with their vibrant colours.

About the initiative taken by the Science section of B.E.S. College The department of Physics, Electronics and Statistics of The Bhawanipur Education Society College intended to organize an outreach/social activity on 28.09.2022 at Barasat (Near Railway Station) to this open air school "Prajapatir Pathshala". The Pathshala has been located beside the Barasat Railway station and has to face immense noise disturbances due to various train announcements formed throughout the day. This causes disturbances in conducting classes and various other activities for these students. As per requirements of Team Revolution (founder of "Prajapatir Pathshala"), a sound system, of significantly high decibel was donated to this Team, so that it would be capable of addressing all the students as well as to counter a portion of the noise developed during train announcements. The sound box or system is driven by a rechargeable battery since there is no availability of electrical connection in the Pathshala. After rainfall the place becomes very wet and muddy which prohibits the students from sitting on the ground which causes disruption in continuing the classes. 25 chairs were donated for the students of the Pathshala, so that they need not sit on the ground after rainfall. 50 lunch packets were distributed among the students and their family members. 4. Pen, pencil, eraser were also distributed among the students. A group of 22 students of different streams along with 16 faculty members and 6 non-teaching staff members of B.E.S. College science section visited those distressed children of the school with their full enthusiasm, support and carried out various activities. Science section of B.E.S. College is thankful to GB, IQAC, TIC, Dean of Science and VP Science for their constant support and initiative. Outcome: This outreach program helped the “ Prajapatir Pathshala” with a battery driven loudspeaker, study aids, lunch packets and chairs.

Twenty-Three (23) students of semester III and V of the Department of Chemistry of The Bhawanipur Education Society College, Kolkata accompanying with Dr. Pinki Saha Sardar, Dr. Saugata Konar, Dr. Yeasin Sikder, Mr. Sourav Das and Mr. Atanu Maity (Laboratory assistant) went to this Industrial Visit. This visit started with students congregating in the Howrah Station at around 11 pm on 20th of October, 2022. The train departed at around 12:05 am from Howrah Station and reached Chandrapura at around 8 a.m. in the next morning. The students along with the teachers had a tiring but a memorable train journey. Hotel check-ins at Hotel Reliance, Bokaro were done smoothly.

On that day (21.10.2022), after reaching the hotel, students and teachers went to the Damodar Valley Corporation (DVC) by road at around 12:30 pm after having delicious food. The students were enlightened on various topics in the DVC. They had acquired practical knowledge about the removing of undesirable chemicals, biological contaminants, suspended solids, and gases from water for water management (one of the bifurcating parts of DVC along with thermal power) both for the purpose of boiler and supply of drinking water to nearby villages using various techniques. They also learnt about the controlling of water hardness and pH using ion exchange resin and different chemicals. After that we visited the coal examination room with proper safety where they experienced the use of different sophisticated instruments including the Atomic Absorption Spectroscopy (AAS), coal grinder, hot air oven with higher temperature variant, bomb calorimeter etc. They have learnt how to determine the calorific value of coal sample before it is taken to the furnace for thermal power generation. The students also experienced the transportation process of coal from train to the boiler with proper safety. Both the students and teachers were very much excited after seeing all the projects.

Everyone departed from there in the evening and returned back to the hotel by bus. This was followed by a lot of fun and multiple jamming sessions amongst the students till dinner. The next day (22.10.2022) was reserved for sight-seeing in and near Bokaro. At 8 pm in the evening, the train left from Chandrapura and reached Howrah at around 4 a.m. in the next morning. Everyone learnt a lot from this trip and made a lot of memories which they will cherish forever.

The students were also motivated about the industries and practical approach they received from DVC. This Industrial visit was a complete blend of education and amusement. The main focus of this industrial visit was to acquire practical knowledge and for implementation of these in future.

- Outcome of the activity: We have gained the idea of practical knowledge about the removal of undesirable chemicals, biological contaminants, suspended solids, and gases from water for water management both for the purpose of boiler and supply of drinking water to nearby villages using various techniques. Also, the use of different sophisticated instruments including the Atomic Absorption Spectroscopy (AAS), Coal Grinder, Hot Air oven with higher temperature variant, bomb calorimeter etc are utilized in DVC.

- Time: All Day
- No. of Participants: 37 students +3 teachers
- Objective of the Activity: On the 18th of November 2022, the Department of Computer Science of The Bhawanipur Education Society College embarked on an educational trip to the city of Hyderabad. The purpose of this trip was to educate the students about the intricacies of film-making, and to emphasize the role of computers in the various aspects of creating a movie.
- Brief Description of the Activity:

Day-1: The teachers and students of the department of computer science of the Bhawanipur Education Society College, started the 3-day trip with a visit to the Salarjung museum. The team got to view the world famous English Bracket Clock in action, along with an array of beautiful marble statues which were made during the British rule. The team then proceeded to the Golconda Fort. Golconda fort is undoubtedly one of the most magnificent fortress complexes in India. The inner fort contains ruins of palaces, mosques and a hilltop pavilion, which rises about 130 meters high and gives a bird's eye view of the whole city of Telangana. The sunset was perfect with the scintillating view from the top of the fort.

Day-2: The second day was arguably the most important day of the trip. On the second day the team visited Ramoji Film City – the largest film studio complex in the world. To begin with, Ramoji Film City tour offers behind the scenes experiences of live movie sets and shoots-in-progress. Plus, there are restaurants, a dedicated area for shopping, rides etc. It had a fake airport, hospital, railway station, laboratories, Tihar Jail, temples, churches, mosques, ancient caves (man-made), British and French residential societies, Mughal and Japanese gardens, and the list goes on. The team learnt how films are created. The multimedia animation behind it was pretty amazing. One of the teachers, Ms. Anamika Guha volunteered for a short film which was totally shot in front of everyone. With the help of Green Screen animation, her movements were perfectly amalgamated in a motion picture. The background score was also created right in front of the team using nothing but regular trinkets. The way the combination of lights, camera angles, different sounds, music were explained to all of us.

Day-3: The third day was all about visiting the famous sites in the city. First off, the team visited Char-Minar. After spending quality time soaking up the beautiful locality, the team went on a boat ride on the famous Hussain Sagar Lake. The team also got a chance to see one of the largest marble statues in the world – The Buddha Statue.

The Department of Electronics of The Bhawanipur Education Society College organised an Industrial Visit to Bose Institution, Darjeeling on 24th March 2023. The objective behind such a visit was to match theoretical knowledge of the students with the real working environment.

After reaching the place the event started around 11 AM. The incharge supervisor of the hydel project gave a detailed tour of the Teesta Canal Fall Hydel Project, which is erected in the Teesta Canal of West Bengal in India. The total installed capacity of the power plant is 67.5 MW. The total number of turbines in the power house is nine and capacity per turbine is 7.5 MW. The unit size of the plant is 67.5 MW having nine units of 7.5 MW each. There are nine units in the plant and all are commissioned. This power project is owned by the West Bengal State Government and the operator of the plant is West Bengal State Electricity Distribution Company Limited (WBSEDCL).

Students of the department got exposed to the real application of industry machinery. They got the knowledge and picture of working departments in the real configuration which is difficult to imagine in theory classes. Students understood the connection between semiconductor devices and circuits, power electronics, different types of instruments, total control systems of the aforementioned project and its working procedure.

The event concluded around 3 PM. The department of Electronics is very much hopeful that this visit will bring a dimension to students' education, which they cannot gain in the classroom as well as will help them to make connections between the different aspects of their educational experience.

- b. Computer Awareness Program: The Department of Electronics of science section conducted a Computer Awareness Program on 21/03/2023 at Bich Kagay Jr High School, Kagay Bazar, Kalimpong where the students of the department demonstrated a hands-on program on basic computer applications among the students of the rural school. The event started with a total of 12 students and seven teachers of Bich Kagay Junior School along with thirteen members of our college. Before the computer awareness programme got started the senior teacher of Bich Kagay Junior School gave a short speech of introduction. From there we got to know that this Junior School is runned by few volunteer teachers and other non teaching staff. They also provide a mid-day meal to the student.

They also distributed educational stationery items among the students of that rural school. Around ten students and three teachers participated in that outreach activity. The whole program was planned and conducted by the department (both, teachers and students) with active support from the college management. Bich Kagay Jr. High School is a rural school which is located near Kagay Bazar at Kalimpong. Recently, the school has been extended up to class VIII. The school comprises twenty students and five volunteer teachers. The students obtained theoretical knowledge of basic computer courses but they had no computer for practicals. So, the students of the school faced difficulties in understanding the subject. The teachers and students of the department reached the School around 11:30 AM in the morning on 21 st March, 2023. They were warmly welcomed by the teachers and students of the School. Then the students of the department of Electronics assembled and installed the computer which was donated to that school.

- Outcome of the activity: An outreach program is an extension activity which contributes to the welfare of the society. With the help of the Computer, which was donated to the school, the students of that school will be able to learn basic computer applications efficiently. In addition, this activity may help the students of the college to build a sense of responsibility and sensitivity towards society. 5. Name of the Activity: Educational Tour to Darjeeling

- Category of the Activity: Extension Programme
- Organising unit: Department of Economics
- Duration of the activity: 01 to 05 June, 2023
- Time: All Day
- No. of Participants: 29 students and 05 faculty
- Objective of the activity: To acquaint the students with the real world and take them beyond the limits imposed by a pre-set syllabus.
- Brief description of the activity: The tour started from Howrah station on the afternoon of 01 June 2023. After a night halt at Siliguri, the group of 29 students and 5 teachers reached Darjeeling on 2 June 2023. The first halt in Darjeeling was at Bose Institute, Darjeeling. The premises were built by the founder, Acharya J.C. Bose in 1920 and houses a museum and a research centre. A detailed tour of Acharya Bose's house that has been converted into a museum was given by Mrs Yashodhara Yadav, Junior Laboratory Assistant. The students were also explained some of the seminal experiments conducted by Bose. Mrs Yadhav also explained the recent experiment being conducted by the institute on the level of air pollution in and around Darjeeling. On June 3, 2023, the group visited Tiger Hills at dawn to view Mt Kanchenjunga and Mt Everest. Later in the day the group visited the Makaibari Tea Estate at Kurseong. The students were explained the different stages of tea processing - from the gardens in the foothills of the Himalaya to the auction house in Kolkata. On the final day the group moved back to Siliguri via Simanta on the Indo-Nepal border and Mirik Lake. On 5 June the group reached Howrah in the afternoon.

- Outcome of the activity: An excursion initiates students, particularly those who are not used to hostel life, to the joys and vagaries of community living. The department had provided each student with exercise books and stationery to pen down their thoughts regarding the tour. It is evident from these tour diaries that though enjoyment with friends was an agenda, they were not oblivious to their surroundings. While they could appreciate the scenic beauties, they could also identify the infrastructural bottlenecks that could hamper the tourism industry in and around Darjeeling in the near future. Concern about the excessive traffic jam, pollution, changing weather conditions, unplanned constructions, etc. that are affecting both tourism and the tea industry in Darjeeling finds mention in their observations. Thus one can see that the application of coursework to real life experience was an important and welcome outcome of the trip.

- No. of Beneficiaries: 35
- Objective of the activity: Conducting a 6-month Conversational English course.
- Brief description of the activity: Children will inherit this world, if we let them grow up properly, they'll become productive members of society. Underprivileged children often have no access to quality education. Therefore, education is the most important thing we can give these kids. In this regard, The NSS unit of The Bhawanipur Education Society College visited Asha Nayan, Don Bosco. It is dedicated for the upliftment of the street children in Calcutta irrespective of gender, race, or religion. It provides these street children with access to education or to vocational training so that they can lead a meaningful life and build their future. The NSS unit initiated Chapter:1 of its project- "Connecting Dots" at Asha Nayan where NSS volunteers will conduct a 6-month Conversational English course. Followed by a proper evaluation process. On successful completion of the course a certificate will be provided to the kids. On August 27, "Connecting Dots" was launched with its basic session with "introduction" and a brief "extempore" followed by some fun events. Kids entertained everyone with their brilliant performances. The purpose was to spend time with these kids is to strive towards nurturing the youth, to encourage these kids and support them in whatever change they are trying to make in the society. It's not about who you are or how much you can do but doing our bit individually on a regular basis is what goes a long way in changing mindsets and the society.

- Objective of the activity: to celebrate World Water Week 2022, where the NSS volunteers visited neighbouring residences with professional plumbers to offer free services to ensure the stoppage of leaking faucets and taps and educating them on simple ways to save water; emulating NSS's actual motto, "Not Me, But You".
- Brief description of the activity: The NSS unit of The Bhawanipur Education Society College came together for its unique project Jal Se Jeevan to celebrate World Water Week 2022, where the NSS volunteers visited neighbouring residences with professional plumbers to offer free services to ensure the stoppage of leaking faucets and taps and educating them on simple ways to save water; emulating NSS's actual motto, "Not Me, But You". It was about time to take action to tackle the global water crisis and mending it now be a top priority. The project had 4 teams with 2 members each, along with a plumber who went to different houses from DumDum to Howrah and Tollygunge to Park Circus to spread the word of water conservation and to alert people of the pre-existing shortage of water and provide free service of fixing leaking taps at their homes in order to conserve this precious life source. Outcome of the activity: The students made the residents aware of some life hacks in our day-to-day life where and how we can save water. The students went to the following areas:

- Date/ duration of the activity: 01 April, 2023
- Time: 9am to 4pm
- No. of Participants: 8
- No. of Beneficiaries: 150 kids
- Objective of the activity: To spread awareness about women safety, government schemes, women hygiene etc. and to distribute educational items.
- Brief description of the activity: On 1.4.2023, the Department of History, in collaboration with NSS circle of the Bhawanipur Education Society College, organised an Extension and Outreach Programme, at Shanti Rani Primary School at Bansdrani. The programme was organised to celebrate World Water Day (held each year on 22nd March). The faculty and the students had all assembled together in the college premises, boarded the bus and reached the center at around 11 am. The premises contained lush gardens and opportunities for its residents to ensure all round holistic development. A conversation with the headmistress and teachers made us marvel in the talent that is effectively honed by teachers, who are regular in engaging the students, not only in terms of education, but also for co-curricular activities. As part of a plantation drive, the department had provided saplings (mango and rose) that were planted in the gardens, jointly by both our students and the young children residents. The planting of these saplings, metaphorically also seemed to be the early forging of interactions between our students and the children.

In the next schedule of events planned, our BA final year students conducted a quiz session in which the children had participated with enthusiasm. Following this quiz session, our BA second year students had organised a skit, dwelling on water preservation- as the need of the hour. The skit was a balanced presentation- with research and amusing performances- both in equal measure, that was enjoyed en masse. Following the skit presented by our students, the children presented dance performances. The children had zealously participated in all of the events that had been scheduled. The skit and the children's performances were an experience of bonhomie, ties of friendship and mentorship between all of the students. These nascent ties of mentorship received fruition, when in the convening of the drawing competition for the young minds, all students had hands-on experience in interacting with the children. The drawings were to be based on the overarching theme of bringing out the importance of water as a resource. Before the commencement of the event, students highlighted problems of potable water scarcity. Among the important points that were discussed with the children were notions that despite the easy and abundant availability of water on our planet, a very small percentage of it was actually fit for human consumption. As part of the drawing competition, we handed to the participants drawing copies and a stationary kit- complete with boxes of colors. Each of the students had interesting depictions on the necessity of water, and after detailed deliberations, competition winners were announced at the end of the event.

- Outcome of the activity: The winners were all encouraged to explain their drawings, which they readily did. College student volunteers warmly indicated that each of the students were winners in their own right. The events of the day were thus concluded with a distribution of awards for the winners and food packets. 1st of April, 2023 was a day well spent, with friendships, student mentorships, promises and cheer.

They played games like shooting balloons, aiming ping pong balls, arranging cups, consumption of hanging food without the use of their hands, etc. which was a fun and exciting experience for the students.

The spellbinding and mesmerizing performances put up by the college students on popular songs like "Buddhu Sa Man Hai," "Bam Bam Bole," and "Ashiyaan" for the children were a sight to behold. In return, the audience was treated to spectacular performances by the guest children on culturally rich and diverse songs such as "Ganesha Vandana," "Dholi Taaro," and some beautiful Bengali folk songs. The depth and richness of the performances showcased by the children were a testament to their innate talent and the dedication of their instructors.
