- Academic Bank of Credits (ABC) is a storehouse of student's academic achievements & awards in a digital / virtual space. To create an ABC account, students are required to create Automated Permanent Academic Account Registry (APAAR) ID, a specialized academic identification system designed by the University Grants Commission (UGC) for all students in India.
- Every student in India is required to register for APAAR ID - a unique 12-digit code, to digitally store, manage, and access all their academic credits, including degrees, diplomas, certificates, training details, and co-curricular accomplishments.
- With ABC account, students can leverage the benefits of-
 - Having their own accounts, ABC ID, and their own dashboard.
 - Dashboard will help them to track their credit accumulation, transfer requests, and credit history.
 - Performing credit transfer initiation requests and a follow-up view request status effectively.
- In a nutshell, the ABC account will make it easier to recognize, transfer, and redeem credits.
